

William H. Wilson, CPA, CFA

William H. Wilson is a Registered Investment Advisory with the State of Texas and has been in the practice of managing defined contribution retirement accounts for 30 years. He holds an MBA degree from the University of Texas at Austin and his professional credentials include Certified Public Accountant, State of Texas; and Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He has been an adjunct faculty member at the University of Texas at Arlington, Department of Accounting for the past 25 years.