Dan Baucum provides federal and state tax and business planning for entrepreneurial owners and their companies. Mr. Baucum also represents clients in high-stakes domestic and international tax examinations, IRS Appeals and in Court. He is currently Vice Chair of Cantey Hanger's Business, Tax and Estates Section.

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Baucum's legal career spans more than 35 years as an attorney in Dallas and Washington, D.C. He is a recognized commentator on tax matters and has testified numerous times as an expert. For ten years Mr. Baucum worked in Washington, D.C., first as a Special Assistant in the IRS Chief Counsel's office, and then as Director of IRS Practice for Coopers & Lybrand, LLP. His years of experience working in government and private tax practice in Washington, D.C. give Mr. Baucum the ability to provide his clients valuable insights into the inner workings of federal tax policy and government practices and to interface on his clients' behalf with government policymakers at the Internal Revenue Service, the Treasury Department and on Capitol Hill.

The Texas Lawyer newspaper selected Mr. Baucum in December, 2012, as one of five Texas "Go-To Lawyers" in Taxation, an award given only once every five years. The Texas Bar's Tax Section awarded Mr. Baucum its Distinguished Service Award at the Bar's 2013 Annual Convention. Mr. Baucum has been named three times to D Magazine's list of prominent tax lawyers in Dallas (2009, 2011 and 2014) and as a Power Attorney in 2014 by the Fort Worth Business Press.
