

Evelyn Dyson Lee, Sr. Stakeholder Liaison, IRS

Evelyn Dyson Lee is a Sr. Stakeholder Liaison with the Internal Revenue Service. As a Sr. Stakeholder Liaison she focuses on the local engagement of the payroll, practitioner, and industry stakeholder organizations to provide information about the policies, practices, and procedures the IRS uses to ensure compliance with the tax laws.

Evelyn started her career with IRS in 1987 as a Tax Auditor examining individual and small business tax returns. She moved on to become a Revenue Agent and started examining High Income, Business, Corporate, and Partnership tax returns. She has served as an Excise Tax Agent, On-the-Job Instructor, and Technical Quality Review Specialist. Evelyn has also served as Acting Area Manager of the Southeast, Western, and New York Area Stakeholder Liaison groups. Evelyn has served as a VITA volunteer and conducted Small Business tax workshops. Evelyn feels that if we provide the taxpaying public with the information, education, and tools needed to understand taxes then tax compliance will increase. Evelyn enjoys reading and traveling in her spare time.
