

Matt White, FAAS Senior Manager, EY

- Matt focuses on the asset management and consumer products industries, and has significant experience on complex accounting matters in the area of consolidation, revenue recognition, fair value, and business combinations.
- Matt also has a long history of working with and managing cross functional teams, including Tax and Valuations.
- Matt has managed and worked on projects related to developing a consolidation accounting process, implementing a consolidation accounting system; assisting companies with business combinations; and providing on-call services related to various accounting issues ranging from revenue recognition, consolidation, and acquisitions.