Course Objective

1. To educate Texas Certified Public Accountants in the use of Data and Analytics in the accounting profession. As part of the education process, this course will:

   a. Provide examples and use cases for data and analytics in the profession;
   b. Discuss the skillset, training and knowledge required of accountants in the world of data and analytics.