TO BE COMPLETED BY THE NOMINATING DEPARTMENT: The nominee's Supervising Professor and Graduate Advisor support this student's nomination for a Dissertation Fellowship. The student was selected and ranked on a competitive basis with other nominees taking their academic accomplishments, potential for success and likelihood of completing an excellent dissertation. The nominee is in good academic standing and is prepared and approved to concentrate fully on dissertation work. We have carefully examined the student's proposal and progress to-date and believe the nominee will be able to complete and successfully defend the dissertation to graduate by the end of the Summer Term or in the following Fall or Spring Term. Failure to complete by the intended date of graduation specified in the application may end consideration for future financial support for this nominee unless extraordinary events delayed the student's completion. Finally, if the nominee is an international student, we have determined that he or she will have applied for OPT or H1B status to start after graduation or intends to leave the United States.
