

COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE, PLANNING, AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

The College of Architecture, Planning, and Public Affairs (CAPP) at The University of Texas at Arlington is committed to providing a quality education and fostering a dynamic learning environment. Its dedicated faculty and staff inspire, motivate, and educate students to pursue excellence in academic scholarship, design practice, creative thinking, and critical reflection. CAPP provides a comprehensive, collaborative, relevant, and forward-thinking learning experience grounded in the rich traditions of the professional disciplines situated in the college.

Students can pursue degree programs in architecture, interior design, sustainable urban design, landscape architecture, planning (graduate), and public administration (graduate). Undergraduate minors in architectural history, environmental/sustainability studies, and urban affairs are available, along with graduate certifications in public budgeting and financial management, urban nonprofit management, development review, geographic information systems, and transportation planning and policy.

CENTERS

- The Arlington Urban Design Center
- The Center for Advanced Design, Research, and Evaluation
- The Center for Metropolitan Density
- Center for Transportation Equity, Decisions, and Dollars
- The David Dillon Center for Texas Architecture
- Digital Architecture Research Consortium
- The Institute of Urban Studies
- The Water and Human Settlements Initiative

LABS

- Community Design Build Lab
- Digital Fabrication Lab
- Metal Fabrication Lab
- Photography Lab
- Prototype Assembly Lab
- Wood Fabrication Lab
- Virtual Reality Lab

DISCOVER MORE ABOUT CAPP

