

Yes

Report at uta.edu/coronavirus

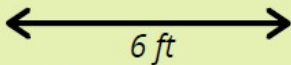

Tested Positive

If you have tested Positive for COVID-19 you should report your case.

Close Contact

You should report close contact if:

- You have been within 6 feet for at least 10 minutes.
- You have had direct contact including handshake, kiss or hug with a COVID-19 positive person.
- You have been directly coughed or sneezed on by COVID-19 positive person.
- You have shared drinking or eating utensils with a COVID-19 positive person.

When to report COVID-19 Exposure

Report at uta.edu/coronavirus

No

3rd Party Contact

Been around someone who has been around someone who tested positive

Minimal Contact

You should NOT report close contact if you have had minimal contact with a COVID-19 positive person including:

- Being more than 6ft away for less than 10 minutes from the person
- You have had no direct contact with the person
- You have not been coughed or sneezed by the person
- You have not shared drinking or eating utensils with the person

Common Coronavirus Symptoms

Fever

Cough

Shortness of Breath

If you have symptoms, talk to your doctor.

COVID-19 POSITIVE TEST/CLOSE CONTACT PROTOCOL

